Suzanne M. Pruitt is a Sr. Escrow Agent with AIC Title Service. She received a BA from The University of Oklahoma and began her career as a paralegal at the Andrews and Davis law firm in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Six years into her career as a real estate paralegal, she began her aircraft work concentrating on commercial aircraft registration and leasing issues.

After nearly fifteen years with the law firm, Suzanne began working in general aviation. Suzanne joined AIC Title Service in 2005 and is currently responsible for overseeing the company’s operations with regard to FAA and International Registry issues. She is a regular speaker at seminars and conferences for aircraft professionals and recently collaborated with other personnel of AIC Title Service on a recent episode of “The Aviators” regarding the steps required to purchase an aircraft.

Because Suzanne’s father was a National Park Ranger, Suzanne had the unusual privilege of being raised in National Parks.
